The Oregon Music Hall of Fame (OMHOF) will host their 1st annual Induction Ceremony on Saturday, October, 13th at the Roseland Theater. This event features the largest collection of home grown, All-Star musical talent ever assembled in the State of Oregon!

OMHOF is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting & preserving the musical arts in the state of Oregon. A major part of our mission is funding music education programs throughout the state.

All (50) current Hall of Fame inductees (see Hall of Fame member list at www.omhof.org) will be honored and OMHOF will also honor 5 new inductees. OMHOF has invited all inductees to attend this ceremony and many will perform including Mark Lindsay, Everclear, Mason Williams, The Kingsmen, Billy Rancher's Unreal Gods, Jon Koonce and more surprises! The evening's host will be the hilarious comic, Dwight Slade.

This event will feature pre and post ceremony VIP parties as well as live sets of OMHOF Hall of Fame members performing in Blues, Pop, Jazz, and other musical genres. Tickets are available at all Ticketwest locations for only $25.

Special VIP tickets are also available for $100. VIP tickets include a reserved seat, access to the post ceremony party and an autographed limited edition event poster by Gary Houston, artist extraordinaire.

Join us for Oregon's most spectacular musical event in 2007!
